TUFS-ISSA will support your study in Japan

The International Student Support Association (ISSA) at Tokyo University of Foreign Studies (TUFS) is an NGO that supports international students and researchers studying at TUFS and their families. With over 600 members, including TUFS faculty, students, parents, alumni, and local residents, we work together to carry out the following activities:

Support for Students in need of help

Financial support and loans for students in need.

Bazaars where you can purchase daily necessities at low prices.

Subsidies for travel expenses to attend academic conferences.

Consulting activities to solve your everyday problems.

Understanding Japanese Culture and Society

Visits of historical sites and also modern industrial facilities.

Appreciate traditional Japanese arts such as Kabuki.

Japanese culture classes on Ikebana(flower-arranging), Sado (tea ceremony), Shodo(calligraphy), etc. and Nihongo Square.

Intercultural Exchange and Mutual Understanding

Exchanges with Japanese students.

Homestays and home visits.

Exchanges with citizens and schools in the local community.

Activities in our Contact Room

Our Contact Room on the 1st floor of International Residence No.2. is the base of ISSA activities and an oasis for international students.

It's open every Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday from 11:40 to 15:40. Our staff will be waiting for you. Feel free to stop by if you are in trouble, need information, or want someone to talk to.
